2009 Finlandia University International School of Art and Design Faculty Exhibit

Exhibit Dates: February 19 to March 20, 2009

Opening reception: Thursday, February 19, 2009, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

HANCOCK, MI – Finlandia University’s International School of Art and Design will present a faculty exhibit at the Finlandia University Gallery, located in the Finnish American Heritage Center, Hancock, February 19 to March 20, 2009.

An opening reception for the artists will take place at the gallery Thursday, February 19, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. The reception is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

This year’s exhibit features the work of Jon Brookhouse, Yueh-mei Cheng, Carrie Flaspohler, Phyllis Fredendall, Greg Green, Ronda Jones, Rick Loduha, Jonathan Soper, and Denise Vandeville.

Ceramics, sustainable design, painting and drawing, fiber art, interactive media, and photography are several of the media represented in this exhibit.

Denise Vandeville, dean of the International School of Art and Design, recognizes the importance of faculty artistic work, “Art and design faculty have a unique place within academia, as our intellectual research happens in the studio. The results of this creativity not only inspires the individual, it serves to inspire and instruct art and design students. We invite the public to join us as we celebrate, evaluate, and discuss this research.”

The 2009 International School of Art and Design Faculty Exhibit is on display at the Finlandia University Gallery through March 20.

The Finlandia University Gallery is in the Finnish American Heritage Center, 435 Quincy Street, Hancock. Gallery hours are Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., or by appointment. Please call 906-487-7500 for more information.
