Personal History Writing Workshop in Ontonagon this Saturday

HANCOCK, MI – This Saturday, February 28, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., a Life and Personal History Writing workshop will take place at the Ontonagon Historical Museum, Ontonagon.

The workshop will help participants write their own personal narratives, including poems, descriptions of people or places, beginnings of short stories, personal histories, or memoirs.

Participants should bring pencils and paper, photographs, and vivid memories of the times they wish to write about. Participants will leave each workshop with something they have written.

People of all ages are invited. The workshop is led by Finlandia University professor and Paloheimo Scholar Beth Virtanen, Ph.D.

This is the second of six workshops to be held in various western Upper Peninsula locations. Subsequent workshops will take place in Toivola, Calumet, Baraga, and Covington.

The workshops are free and pre-registration is not required. For information, contact Beth Virtanen at 483-0274.
